In December 2012, Central Valley Community Bancorp entered into a definitive merger agreement to acquire Visalia Community Bank with three offices in Visalia, and one in Exeter. Regulatory approval has been received from all required agencies authorizing Central Valley Community Bancorp to acquire Visalia Community Bank. Final closing of the acquisition is dependent upon a special Visalia Community Bank shareholder meeting scheduled for June 18, 2013, as well as certain closing conditions contained in the merger agreement. The transaction is expected to be completed after the close of business on June 30, 2013. The Visalia Community Bank name and physical signage change to Central Valley Community Bank, in addition to the conversion of all operational systems, is planned for the weekend of July 26-28, 2013. As of December 31, 2012, on a pro forma consolidated basis with Visalia Community Bank, Central Valley Community Bancorp would have had approximately $1.082 billion in total assets and 21 branches.
