CENTRAL VALLEY COMMUNITY BANK TO HOST FREE DOCUMENT SHREDDING EVENTS TO HELP PROTECT BUSINESSES AND INDIVIDUALS AGAINST IDENTITY THEFT

FRESNO, CALIFORNIA...April 5, 2011... Daniel J. Doyle, President and CEO of Central Valley Community Bank (Bank), is pleased to announce that the Bank will be hosting free document shredding events to allow businesses and individuals to shred confidential files safely and securely at 15 Central Valley and Foothill offices beginning April 12 through June 14, 2011. Tax season is a perfect time to assess and discard sensitive documents in an effort to clean house and protect against the rising threat of identity theft.

"Identity theft continues to be among the nation's fastest-growing types of fraud, impacting millions of people each year. Central Valley Community Bank is committed to helping customers and the community protect their personal and business information, which is why we provide identity protection tips and resources on our website at www.cvcb.com and annually hold free document shredding events throughout the Central Valley and Foothills," said Dan Doyle, President and CEO of Central Valley Community Bank.

Central Valley Community Bank offices in Fresno, Madera, Merced, San Joaquin and Stanislaus counties are providing paper shredding services free of charge, up to a limit of six banker boxes per person or business, and up to the truck capacity. Additional boxes will be referred to an alternate location for an additional fee. Paper shredding dates, locations and times are as follows:
