RICHARD CHACKEL JOINS CENTRAL VALLEY COMMUNITY BANK

FRESNO, CALIFORNIA...July 8, 2020 - James M. Ford, President and CEO of Central Valley Community Bank (Bank), is pleased to announce the addition of Richard “Rick” Chackel to the Commercial Banking team for the Greater Sacramento Region. Rick is based in the Bank’s Roseville office at 2999 Douglas Blvd., Suite 160, and can be reached directly at (916) 859-2922.

Rick joins Central Valley Community Bank as a commercial lending expert with over 40 years of proven success serving businesses in the Greater Sacramento Region. With a strong commercial banking background and a reputation for building long-lasting client relationships, he is able to provide tailored solutions for businesses of all sizes. By helping them achieve their financial goals, Rick contributes to the growth and profitability of his clients’ organizations.

In his new role with the Bank, Rick will also be responsible for establishing new business relationships to help contribute to their success, as well as the success of the Greater Sacramento Region.

“Rick is a well-known and highly respected commercial relationship manager and community steward in Sacramento,” said James M. Ford, President and CEO of Central Valley Community Bank. “His work ethic, relationship-building acumen and financial expertise will bring great value to our Commercial Banking team as he continues to further develop new lending opportunities in the Sacramento region.”

In addition to being a respected commercial banking professional, Rick also dedicates his time to the community including serving as a board member for The First Tee of Greater Sacramento.
