CENTRAL VALLEY COMMUNITY BANK CELEBRATES 40-YEAR ANNIVERSARY IN KERMAN

FRESNO, CALIFORNIA...February 26, 2020... James M. Ford, President and CEO of Central Valley Community Bank (Bank), is pleased to share that its Kerman Banking Center will be holding a month-long celebration in March in honor of the Bank's 40-year anniversary. The Kerman Banking Center and its team invite clients and the community to help celebrate by stopping by in March to meet new Vice President, Banking Center Manager, Mike Bodourian, and to participate in an enter-to-win gift basket, and enjoy refreshments on Friday, March 6, and Friday, March 20, 2020.

Throughout the year, the team also seeks to gather business client and nonprofit Bank relationship success stories to be shared through social media to further support their loyal partnerships. Central Valley Community Bank is holding similar client appreciation anniversary events at each of its 20 Banking Centers throughout the San Joaquin Valley and Greater Sacramento regions during 2020, as well as awarding $40,000 in $1,000 increments to 40 nonprofits by the end of first quarter to thank each of its communities for 40-years of trust and support.

"It's our honor and privilege to thank our Kerman clients and the community for their longstanding confidence and referrals," said James M. Ford, President and CEO of Central Valley Community Bank. "We first entered the Kerman community in 2002 and since then, a number of our valued team members have served this important community."
